Congress has agreed-by a joint resolution, both houses concurring-to terminate their present session on the 7th of June, being about six months from the compencement, at the rather clever compensation, for each member, of $16,67 (sixteen dollars and sixty-seven cents) per day. 🗥

This is more than double the amount the paypers received prior to 1850; and it should be remembered that they still receive a most exharbitant and wholly unreasonable mileage to boot, being 8 dollars for every 20 miles travel to and from Washington, by way of "Robin Hood's barn."

Considering that there gentry get pry for Sunday the same as my week day, and that not one in forty of them (Seastors included) could begin to earn any such money as they get out of "Uncle Sam," (and work little or much for it, just as they choose,) it must be very comfortable to be a Congressman, about these times.

Emigration is entering the Territory from all quarters, and though there is not the same speculative demand for property, there is a better opening for bonn fide settlers than last year. LIFE THOUGHTS of Henry Ward Beecher gathered from his extemperaneous disccourses, by one of his congregation, lays upon our table. It is for sale in this city by Charles E. Hammett, Jr.

As we have already given an extensive notice of this work from the proof sheets which were kindly sent to us some days since by the publishers, it is unnecessary to say more than that its typography is extremply neat and its binding unexception-

We prepared an editorial article on the result of the city election at a late hour last night, but were obliged to withhold it until to-morrow as our compositors worked nearly all night in setting up the returns

The internal condition and appearconveniences for business, the scanty furniture has been used for years and is entirely worthless; the books are composed of sheets of paper stacked together, which are neither durable or safe; the walls and paint are black from smoke and u c, -and every thing is in a shabby condition. This is the fault of the Government, and not of the present or past Custom House officers. The Collector's private room contains a table and a few chairs, attained at the expence of the Collector. The boat would not be owned or used by a next fisherman, and is nick for the purposes for which it is used-There is not another Custom House in the U. S., where so little has been done for it by the Government. We really hope that Secretary Cobb will allow a reasoable sum for improvements at this public building .-Singular as it may seem, nearly all the Record books have been purchased by the officers, at the their own expense. The salaries of the officers are low enough, in all conscience, and the Government ought to make suitable and decent accommodations In the public business,

Spurgeon sometimes comes out with a good thing, "Brethren," said he, "if God had referred the Ark to a Committee on Naval Affairs, it's my opinion it wouldn't have been built yet!"

CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, Monday, April 19th, 1858. In the Benate, on Saturday, the Beficieny Bill was taken up and made the special der for the day. The Pacific Rail Road 1 4 Mill being token up, Mr. Benjamin of Louisaspoke of the present exhausted condition of the Treasury, the small receipts of Revenue, and the expenses incident to the war with Utah, and moved to postpone the further consideration of the Bill until the first Monday in December. This motion being discussed by Messze. Johnson, of Ark., Houston, Iverson, and Wilson, in favor of it; and Mesirs. Gwin, Broderick, Green, Douglas, and King, against it, was carried by a vote of 25 to 22, 15 Senators being absent or not voting. A motion is to be made for a re-consideration of this vote.

In the House of Representatives, the Private Calender occupied the most of the setting. A considerable discussion took place as to whether the Bill to refund to Barelay and Livingston and "others," duties on certain goods destroyed by fire in the city of New York, on the 19th day of July, 1845, was a private or a public Bill. The question was still under discussion when the House adjourned. House adjourned. The proposition of the Attorney General of New Grenada for the annexation of that Republic to the American Union meets with a hearty second here in all circles. The proposition is looked upon as another grand tten towards the "manifest destiny" of the great American Republic to absorb the enfire North American continent. > It only requires a look on the Map of the World to satisfy any one that such is the manifest destiny of our Republic, and the example set, by New Grenvila to other southern Republies, in the consummation of such a proposition, would un louistedly quicken the fulfilment of such a destiny, in geometrical progression. We might than look for similar propositions from other Central 'American Republics and from Mexico-and then from Northern "Provinces" and "Possessions," by negotiations with Mother Countries. Our People must not allow the slavery question to interfere with this magnificent destiny. The expansion of our Republie in any direction cannot add a single individual to its slave, population, and the propagation of liberal principles will certainly not deteriorate their condition. This is a subject that, like Temperance and Morality we must leave to the progress of the age, and domestic legislation.

It is said that Col. Benton, notwithstanding his life long energy and industry, died poor. Like Clay and Webster and others his life was devoted to the service of his his life was devoted to the service of his country, to the neglect of his own pecuniary affairs. Still he has probably left a rich legacy to his affectionate and devoted children, in his "Abridgement of the Debates of Congresse" from the first session of that body down to the Compromise session, inclusive, of 1850. It is expected that Congress will order, during the present session, yet, an edition of this work for the use of its members and the different Government offices. offices.

The President is making arrangements for a Summer residence on the bluff north of the city, about two miles due north of the White House. The place under negotiation is the villa of "Ingleside," the property of Gen. Hiram Walbridge.

The Hon. Caleb Cushing is now here as the consul of Judge Watrons, of Texas, ton D. C. whose case is now under consideration by the Committee of the House of Representatives to which was referred the Resolutions of the Legislature of Texas, asking his impeachment.

The Health Report of this city, for the month of March shows the total number of deaths to have been 81, of which 34 were of children under five years of age. There were 16 deaths of pneumonia, 12 of scarlet fever, and 11 of consumption.

CAUTION NOTICE.

DERSONS living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets of Certificates of Package of Tickets. The country is shooled with Logus and awindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. £100,000 Capital Prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; and if money is sent to them for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price
